Los Angeles Forum for Architecture and Urban Design Membership 2010

Founded in 1987, the Los Angeles Forum for Architecture and Urban Design (LA Forum) is a non-profit organization dedicated to supporting innovative architecture, urbanism, art and design. The aim of the LA Forum is to take the pulse of contemporary design discourse, to identify, investigate, and interrogate an array of ideas and individuals through events, gallery shows, and publications that engage design professionals, scholars and the broader community in Los Angeles and beyond. Membership helps sustain LA Forum website maintenance, archive development, exhibitions, lectures, symposia, competitions and publications. Members support innovative architecture and design and receive free entry to LA Forum lectures and site visits and discounts on LA Forum merchandise.
